ECONOMY IN COAL

Puchuan Lamp Coal is the best for country in coal value. All lamp coals have a large percentage of dust, which are practically wasted. The dust in PUCHUAN Lamp Coal is so fine as to be blown away by the wind, and is therefore a decided economy.

ERSKINE CHILDERS.

RENEGADE ENGLISHMAN EXECUTED.

REBEL MILITARY BRAIN.

LONDON, November 24.

Erskine Childers has been executed.

DOMINATED DE VALERA.

LONDON, November 24.

The execution of the renegade Englishman Erskine Childers who is generally believed to have dominated De Valera and was the military brain of the rebel movement was the result of a secret court martial in Dublin whose decision Erskine Childers' counsel vainly endeavored to upset by applying for a writ of habeas corpus in the civil courts of Dublin.

Erskine Childers

SECRET TRIAL.

LONDON, November 24.

Erskine Childers was executed at seven o'clock this morning. He is believed to have been shot. The official army report states that Childers was tried by a military court at the Portobello Barracks, Dublin on November 17 on a charge of possessing an automatic pistol without proper authority when apprehended by the National forces on November 10 at Annamoe House in County Wicklow. He was found guilty and sentenced to death.

ABORTIVE IRREGULAR ATTACKS.

The belief that Childers would be executed led to heavy abortive attacks by irregulars on National army posts in Dublin last night.

In Dublin there has been a sensation over the execution, some approving and some disapproving.

DE VALERA'S THREAT.

It is recalled that De Valera recently threatened bloodshed if Childers was executed.

It is believed Childers dominated De Valera and was the military brain of the rebel movement.

LONDON, November 24.

The first division of the new Parliament took place this afternoon when a motion by Mr. Bonar Law empowering the Government to take all the time of the House in the present session for Government business was carried by 239 to 135 votes.

The Labour members opposed the motion. Mr. Ramsay MacDonald said the Labour members did not object to the quickest possible despatch of the Irish Bill, but other questions, for example matters in connection with the Lausanne conference, might require discussion.

LOYD GEORGE NEUTRAL.

LONDON, November 24.

In the House of Commons the Liberals voted with the Labour members against Mr. Bonar Law's motion. Some National Liberals supported the Government and others abstained. Mr. Lloyd George did not vote.

BAVARIAN OUTRAGE.

BRITISH OFFICER INJURED.

BERLIN, November 24.

A British and a French officer belonging to the Inter-Allied Control Commission, who arrived at Ingolstadt in Bavaria to inspect ammunition depots were attacked with clubs and stones by a band of civilians hiding in the vicinity.

WASHINGTON AGREEMENT.

FRANCE'S ATTITUDE UNCERTAIN.

NEW YORK, November 24.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent, referring to M. Leygues' alleged statement, says the Government's attitude point to France's early ratification of the naval pact.

The New York American alone refers to the probability of the Government asking whether M. Leygues' attitude is the policy of M. Poincare.

CORRESPONDENCE.

"SUI AN" PIRACY.

Sir,—In view of the piracy of the "Sui An," may I make a possible suggestion.

Recently a number of ex-servicemen desired to form an air force in the Colony, and I understand approached the government with regard to their being equipped with the necessary aeroplane.

Apart from the valuable service they would perform, in the event of any military action, how useful such a machine would have been in the spotting of the "Sui An."

With a speed of 80 to 100 miles an hour it could have covered all the waters in the vicinity in a very short time, and being fitted with wireless been able to have informed the government, and a fast warship sent to the exact spot immediately.

Yours, etc.,

OTTMAR.

'Ulcers the Size of Man's Hand.'

Our Portrait is of Mr. G. M. THOMPSON, of 4, Midland Grove, Edward Road, Balafrd House, Birmingham, England, who writes:—

"In July last I happened to get a scum on my leg. It was so slight I took no notice of it till a fortnight elapsed, when I found I could not go to work. It gradually grew worse, when it turned septic, from this period I got from bad to worse till at length the sores turned into ulcers, at first at that particular time I did not at all realize the extent of the size of a man's hand covering my leg. After I had tried nearly everything I read about for my Clark's Blood Mixture and decided to take it. It was then in the month of October, and after the second bottle, I found relief. I continued to take seventh bottle when I found myself considerably rid of the trouble. You can make sure if this statement and I will be only too pleased to answer any inquiries sent me. I have taken the last Clark's Blood Mixture that I ever saw of its kind."

Sufferers from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glanular Swellings, Eczema, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, and Rheumatism should realize that lotions, cataplasms, etc., can but give temporary relief to the signs of complete and lasting disease. The blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter, thus true cure can be effected. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes, and expels the impurities that slowly so many unworkable remedies stand in the way of pleasant to take, and free from any injurious ingredients. Of all Chemicals and Noses.

...to doubt that London has been taking itself in hand and purifying its air in recent years."

London air to-day in fact, compares not unfavourably with that in the country. Tests which have been made recently with a new instrument show that country air is by no means so pure as it is generally supposed to be. Take a dose of Pinkettes gentle-as-nature laxatives, supposed to be. So far, indeed, from being quite pure, country air is largely charged with the indust of cities, which is borne to it by almost every breeze that blows, so that after northerly winds even Brighton may get some of that naughty Manchester smoke of which Professor Boycott complains.

GREENFIELD PETITION.

CHIEF JUSTICE'S DECISION.

RECEIVING ORDER MADE.

The Chief Justice (Sir William Ross Davies K.C.) announced his decision this morning to grant the receiving order in respect of Mr Samuel Greenfield's estate which was asked for in the petition presented recently by two stockbrokers, Mr. P. M. N. da Silva and Mr. M. A. Razack. It was the sequel to an unsuccessful application to the "China Provident" shares which Mr. Greenfield had indulged in.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster E.C. (instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist) appeared for the petitioning creditors and Mr. E. H. Zetlyn (instructed by Mr. G. R. H. Wood) on behalf of the debtor.

The petition was opposed by the debtor on the following grounds:—

(1) That the petitioners had been guilty of a breach of duty to their clients which should disentitle them to the order asked for.

(2) That the debts alleged were of a gambling and illegal nature and irrecoverable in law.

(3) That no act of bankruptcy had been committed.

Dealing with the last point, His Lordship said he was clearly of opinion that in the case before him there was a clear intention on the part of the debtor to suspend payment of his debts and his creditors, in the terms of the language used by him, could come to no other conclusion.

The Chief Justice quoted a number of authorities on the point raised as to the legality of the debts and said that in his opinion they disposed of the contention that these share transactions, i.e. the sale notes taken in conjunction with the by-laws endorsed on the back, were illegal as wagering contracts.

No authority, His Lordship said in conclusion, was cited to show that any breach of duty if such existed on the part of a petitioning creditor, was a ground for dismissing a petition.

After His Lordship had made an order for a receiving order, Mr. Zetlyn asked that his costs should be allowed out of the estate. Mr. Alabaster objected that the grounds of opposition had been held insufficient but His Lordship said that he would make the order asked for.

CHINA'S NEW TARIFF.

HISTORY OF ITALY'S OBJECTION.

Peking, November 24.

It reported semi-officially that France has notified the Chinese government of its readiness to agree to the application for effective five per cent. customs duties. Thus Italy and Japan alone stand out. As regards Japan it is stated necessary legal procedure is proceeding satisfactorily, but the Italian stand is being maintained.

It appears when the Sino-Austrian treaty was signed, Italy raised the question of disposal of three ships belonging to the Trieste company, contending that as Trieste had become Italian territory the ships should be handed over to Italy. China objected and Italy proposed arbitration to which China also objected. When the question of the five per cent. duties arose Italy said that inasmuch as China had refused arbitration regarding the ships, Italy could not agree to the customs increase. —Reuter.

DUELING DE LUXE.

"THE THREE MUSKETEERS."

As a sequel to the production by Douglas Fairbanks of the film version of "The Three Musketeers" which is being shown at the Coronet next week, the latest motion picture colony that centres around Hollywood has been thrilled by a new fact-finding.

For three months prior to the making of the picture, every player chosen for a part had to take fencing lessons from a former world's champion swordsman. The purpose of this was to minimize the risk of accident during the filming of the production and also to make the swordsmanship look real on the screen. This was particularly necessary in the case of the actors who were to play the parts of that redoubtable trio Athos, Porthos and Aramis who, it will be recalled, do a deal of blade wielding in the course of the story. There are no less than sixteen duels depicted altogether and in one clash Fairbanks, who makes a splendid Athos, has, with the help of the doctory musketeers, to take on eight adversaries.

BOMB PLOT.

LOCAL WATCHMAKER'S STRIKE THREATS.

TWO MEN ARRESTED.

In connection with the watchmakers' strike, some jewellers' shops in Gough Street, received "mysterious" threats that unless a settlement was brought about by Friday night, their shops would be blown up.

The police having been informed, detectives were sent out on special duty and on Friday night two men were arrested with bombs in their possession.

About 11.15 p.m., on Friday two Chinese detectives noticed two men proceeding up Gough Street steps.

One man carried under his arm what appeared to be a shoe box, while the other carried a gallon tin containing kerosene. The man with the shoe box was challenged by one of the detectives. When the lid of the box was removed, two bombs made of an empty cigarette tin and an empty fruit can respectively, were found inside.

The lids of the tins were tied down with wire and to them were attached fuses about nine inches long. When the lids were removed, inside the tins were found two bottom portions of bottles in which were a stick of dynamite and a detonator. The men were taken into custody.

Yesterday the police took one of the men to No. 400, Shanghai Street, where he lived. His cubicle was searched and two revolvers and nine rounds of ammunition were discovered.

The two men, Ling Sang and Chan Heung, were produced before Mr. R. E. Lindell this morning, charged together with the unlawful possession of the bombs. Chan was also charged with the possession of the revolvers and ammunition.

In asking for a formal remand, Detective Inspector J. Grant told the Magistrate that there would be a further charge of possession of explosives with the intent of causing damage to property to prefer against the defendants at the next hearing.

A remand was given until next Saturday.

The piece goods dispute still remains at a deadlock although some of the native dealers have signified that they are willing to do business on the old conditions. Apparently, there are about half a dozen or so Chinese dealers who commenced the negotiations and remain obstinate. Meanwhile no new business has been reported but there have been steady clearances of goods previously sold.

The dealers have not been slow to take advantage of the situation; although there are large stocks of "piece goods" lying in the godown, prices have been put up. There is no lack of demand, the only goods that have been cleared to any extent being those required for immediate use.

Wing On Street, where some of the piece goods dealers are situated is still full of "cheap sale" posters and this goes to show that they are keen to get rid of their goods.

It has been stated that a few importers are ready to meet the dealers by part modification of their contracts but there are one or two clauses that cannot be relaxed except at a great risk. The majority of the importers, especially those with long-standing connections, are of the opinion that business can only be done on the old terms. There is very little probability of the dealers succeeding in making connections with the manufacturers direct or in doing on their own account as most of the standard lines are handled by agents, whose principals would never think of relinquishing the middleman. Then there is the question of bank credits to be arranged and another obstacle is the difficulty in finding representatives to make inspections prior to shipment. Some dealers have closed the importers' attitude as arbitrary, but it must be remembered that time and again, dealers have, when business was depressed, refused to accept goods or rejected claims under very paltry excuses. There have, also, been instances of importers refusing to entertain claims or offering amounts out of proportion to the loss suffered by deviation from the stipulations on the contracts. Both sides have their arguments without the other. At present, the importers do not want to do business under contracts that may not be sufficient safeguard and the dealers say no.

There is very little probability of the dealers succeeding in making connections with the manufacturers direct or in doing on their own account as most of the standard lines are handled by agents, whose principals would never think of relinquishing the middleman. Then there is the question of bank credits to be arranged and another obstacle is the difficulty in finding representatives to make inspections prior to shipment. Some dealers have closed the importers' attitude as arbitrary, but it must be remembered that time and again, dealers have, when business was depressed, refused to accept goods or rejected claims under very paltry excuses. There have, also, been instances of importers refusing to entertain claims or offering amounts out of proportion to the loss suffered by deviation from the stipulations on the contracts. Both sides have their arguments without the other. At present, the importers do not want to do business under contracts that may not be sufficient safeguard and the dealers say no.

It has been stated that a few importers are ready to meet the dealers by part modification of their contracts but there are one or two clauses that cannot be relaxed except at a great risk. The majority of the importers, especially those with long-standing connections, are of the opinion that business can only be done on the old terms. ARMS ARREST.

KOWLOON WHARF HAUL.

NOT SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE.

Lam Pui and Shek Cheung-look, the two Chinese who were arrested last Saturday in connection with the big haul of arms and ammunition at the Kowloon wharf were yesterday afternoon discharged by Mr. R. E. Lindell on the ground of insufficient evidence.

Chan Yeung, Chinese R. O. No. 62, gave evidence of arrest bearing out Sub-Inspector Pincott's opening statement reported yesterday. The two suitcases in which the arms were found bore labels on which were typewritten "T. Hanson, stateroom No. 114, 'President Cleveland'."

Mr. F. B. Dittman, purser of the ship gave evidence that stateroom No. 114 was not occupied either on the trip to or from Manila. Also, there had never been a passenger named "T. Hanson" on board.

Lam Kau, second runner of the King Edward Hotel, then explained the procedure adopted by him in boarding steamer. He stated that he carried with him blank cards of the hotel and these would be filled in by patrons whom he succeeded in obtaining, the information written thereon giving the name of the patron, his luggage, etc. When his boarded steamers there were usually one or two seamen of the hotel's launch accompanying him who would help in removing the patrons' baggage from the ship. The seamen also carried blank cards to be filled in. In this case the defendants boarded the "President Cleveland" with him, and he heard them shout out "A foreign passenger wants us."

He later saw them stopped on the wharf whilst carrying two suit cases. Questioned by the Magistrate witness said it was not an uncommon occurrence for the card to be filled in on the launch after the baggage had been taken on board.

The Magistrate remarked at the conclusion of the evidence that he agreed with Mr. Alabaster's submission because it seemed to him that the importation was complete with the arrival of the ship here. It was a previous offence. He did not think that the defendants, in any case, could be said to aid and abet the importation even if it could be proved that they conveyed the arms ashore knowing what they were. It was doubtful. That being so, only the charge of possession remained. The evidence was that the men carried the suit cases which were particularly heavy and which they apparently obtained in the course of their ordinary duties. His Worship said there was not sufficient evidence.

Sub-Inspector Pincott, who prosecuted, agreed, and the defendants were discharged. His Worship ordered the arms to be confiscated.

WORLD THEATRE.

"THE OUTSIDE WOMAN"

A fire escape that is decidedly busy with the comings and goings of persons who are most anxious not to meet each other, starts a mythical ball of fun rolling at the World Theatre where the "Outside Woman", the latest Wanda Hawley picture for Keaton opens to-morrow, Sunday for three days' stay. "The Outside Woman" is a clever domestic comedy, revolving around a giddy little wife whose love of silly things to the junk man gets her in a peck of trouble involving the dwellers in the apartment above, a jealous wife of Spanish extraction and an artist with a penchant for living models. The fire escape really ought to have special mention, as it is of great aid in the desperate plight of the various characters who wish to avoid compromising situations. Wanda Hawley is as easy to look at as usual, and enacts the star role with all that dimpled mischief-vousness which has brought her such a big share of popularity. Big, good-looking Clyde Fillmore is convincing as the doctor husband, while Sidney Bracey makes a properly amusing third angle of a most unexpected triangle. A new comer, Rosita Martin, a famous Belgian beauty adds spice as Bracey's wife.

At the World Theatre Beginning SUNDAY, 26th till TUESDAY, 28th.

GERMAN TRADE ROBBER.

FINED 8s. FOR RAZOR-BLADE FRAUD.

Two German merchants were prosecuted before the Cologne courts for sending 1,000 dozen safety-razor blades to Copenhagen with the false trade description of "Gillette Razor Blades." The public prosecutor demanded that fines of 30,000 marks should be inflicted. The court discharged one defendant and contented themselves by fining the other 5,000 marks (about 8s.).

CHURCH NOTES.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY
AFTER TRINITY.

One of the prophecies of Jeremiah is taken for to-morrow's Epistle foretelling Incarnation. The Church has appointed this reading for the last Sunday in her year as a heralding of the Advent preparation for the birth of the Saviour. "The Lord our Righteousness." And when we read this Epistle we must remember that all the Old Testament prophecies connected with the Incarnation are also fore-shadowings of the Day of Judgment.

The Church calls special attention to to-morrow's Gospel for twice in the year she appoints that at Holy Communion, this miracle of the feeding of the five thousand shall be read, seeking to impress upon us its deep spiritual meaning. The people were in a desert place. We are strangers and pilgrims. We need food. We need the sustaining Life of Christ. Jesus used the material things at hand, the loaves and fishes. He co-operated with the disciples making them the distributors of the food. Now he uses bread and wine and His ministers feed His people in the Sacrament of the Altar.

Our Lord loved a young boy to help Him. He gave him to be and in Christ's hands after the blessing it was changed and became enough food for five thousand hungry people—more than enough, for after they were all quite satisfied twelve large baskets of broken pieces were gathered up. God alone knows the value of what we bring to Him and in His hands it can be blessed a thousand times. Still, to day, He uses bread, blessing and changing it, giving under its lowly form His own Body, and saying to all who come to His feast "I am the Bread of Life, he that cometh to Me shall never hunger and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst."

St. Andrew is the Patron Saint of Scotland. He died on November 30 and this day is usually kept by a ceaseless chain of intercession, for foreign missions, as he was the first missionary. He first found his own brother and said to him "We have found Messias." After Christ's Ascension, Andrew preached through Scythia, Sebastopol, Byzantium, and many other places, at last a suffering martyrdom at Patras. The Proconsul of Achaia was visited by Andrew at this time and a dog howling many of the people were being converted to Christianity, his anger was roused and he used every kind of cruelty to punish those who refused to worship idols, his anger reaching fever point when he discovered that his wife Maximilla and her brother had been cured by St. Andrew of dangerous diseases had also embraced the Faith.

He sent for Andrew and commanded him to offer sacrifices to the deities of the Empire. St. Andrew replied that every day he offered the Sacrifice of the Immaculate Son of God, so he was thrown into prison. But the people loved him so much that there would have been a riot had not St. Andrew begged them to follow the example of the humility and meekness of Jesus. Sentence of death being passed on him he was scourged, seven lashes whipping his naked body. Then he was fastened to a cross, not by nails but by cords so that his death might be a more lingering one. As he approached the cross he cried out "Hail, precious Cross, that hast been consecrated by the Body of my Lord, and adorned with His limbs as with rich jewels. I come to thee, exulting and glad, receiving thee with joy into my arms." He hung on the cross for two days and two nights, all the while teaching and instructing the people, also praying that he might die for the people who kept on begging the Consul to spare his life, might be successful, and he longed, as did all the Saints, to seal his confession with his blood. His prayer was granted and he died suddenly on the last day of November, it was in the early half of the Fourth century that Scotland honoured him as her Patron. His relics were brought to Scotland and on the site where they were buried, the Cathedral of St. Andrew was subsequently built.

"All that is great is born of silence." Reading of retreats at Home makes one wish that here in Hongkong people had more opportunity of attending Retreats, or failing that "Quiet Days," for it has been truly said "The spiritual life consists in a series of fresh beginnings." It is in the silence of a Retreat that the listening soul hears the voice of God, calling him to renewed love and service, and no one can doubt the value of such times of withdrawal from the world, (that those returning may serve the world better.) who recalls the words of Christ "Come ye apart into a desert place and rest awhile."

What is Conversion? A most interesting discussion on this subject took place in Sheffield during the Congress, the meeting being divided in opinion as to the normality of conversion. The Archbishop of York tried to bring the two aspects together by saying that the whole Christian life was a process of conversion. "There was no need," he said, "to discuss whether those who had had a sudden conversion had some thing to be ashamed of, nor whether those who had not had it were defective."

A very different view from the usually accepted one, was presented by Dr. Inge who dealt with the historic conversions of St. Augustine and St. Paul. Speaking of the latter he said, "to suppose that a vision in the sky altered his whole character would surely be to disparage the greatness of one of the greatest men who ever lived." Again he spoke of conversions in the Salvation Army, saying "Most of these conversions are reclamations of drunkards who resolve then and there never to touch another drop and often keep their resolution. But as a rule, conviction of sin is less important as an element in conversion than is often supposed. The attraction of goodness is felt first then comes the will to realize it."

Dr. Brown, a well known physician and specialist on mental diseases, disagreed with Dr. Inge that conversion was unnecessary in religious experience, defining it "as the process which begins in a man when he begins to appreciate what is meant by the divine."

Dr. Watts Ditchfield, the Diocesan Missioner of Sheffield, Mr. Pike Pease, President of the Church Army, and others of great experience addressed the meeting, but perhaps the most striking speech was that delivered by Dr. Loel. He told them that it is not easy to convert men, that a character is needed in which a sinner can place his confidence. He gave the story of a poor woman whose daughter had gone wrong and who never afterwards looked the door at night, in the hope her child would return, and so said he, "must we keep the doors of our hearts unlocked?"

HONGKONG TIDES.

The tide-table given below has been compiled at the National Almanac Office in London from the results of the analysis of observations taken by means of an automatic tide-recording machine in the Water Police Basin at Tsim Sha Tsui during the years 1905-9.

The zero of the table corresponds with the zero of the sounding in the Admiralty chart, which has been found to be 4 feet 1 inch below mean sea-level.

To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 2 feet 4 inches, and on the gauge at Leamont Dock, Aberdeen, add 13 feet 1 inch to the height given in the table.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.

THE TALKING SCOOTER.

Alec had been given a scooter for his birthday and he was so pleased with it that he hardly liked it to be out of his sight. He took it to school and there left it outside in a safe place where he could see it from the window and when he left it outside his house he tied it up to a fence with a piece of rope. His friends were allowed to ride on it in turns as a treat for he was very generous with all his belongings, however fond of them, he was.

One night soon after he had gone to bed for no reason whatever he suddenly woke up. The moon was shining brightly so that outside it was almost as light as day. "What fun it would be to go for a run on my scooter," thought Alec. "Everyone must be asleep and I could go so fast without bumping into anyone or anything on the way."

This seemed to be rather a good idea and he had half put one foot out of bed when he thought how cold it might be outside and that he would have to put on his clothes, which seemed rather a nuisance. Then he thought again of the delightful feeling of rushing along on the scooter, up hill and down hill and tearing round corners, very likely without meeting a soul. Without any more hesitation he sprang out of bed, pulled on his socks, slipped into his clothes and ran downstairs, doing up buttons as he went.

In the porch verandah by the front door stood the scooter and Alec quickly unlocked the front door and lifted it down the steps. Then off he went, enjoying every minute of it and by and by he was going down hill and was tearing along at full speed. It was a windy night and great gusts blew by him, yet he seemed to go even faster than the wind.

On and on he went until he was almost breathless. Then to his great surprise the scooter began to sing in a low humming voice—

"On, on, on I tear, Rushing, scooting everywhere, Faster than the fastest wind, Trees and houses left behind. Master, hold on very tight Or you might get such a fright, Now we fly across the sea, Hold on very tight to me."

Alec was so astonished that he clutched the scooter hard and it was a lucky thing that he did so for the next minute it went right up in the air with a bound and Alec saw that they had left the land and far beneath them, the waves were dashing on the shore.

On they went until Alec felt that he would drop off any minute and his hands were becoming quite numb. Then, to his relief, they were back on the land again, gliding smoothly along.

They went down long straight roads with rows of poplar trees on each hand and in the distance he could see a number of windmills.

"Oh I wish that I could see some people," said Alec to himself. "It seems rather lonely here."

When he had started out he had wanted to have the whole place to himself but now he had grown rather tired of it.

Just as he said this, strangely enough, he passed by a cottage and the door opened and a woman came out and looked up and down the road as if she were expecting someone.

She was dressed in bright blue and she had on a big white apron and a white cap which came down over her head like a bonnet and she wore wooden shoes which went clip-clop as she walked.

"Why," gasped Alec, "it is a Dutch woman. I must be in Holland. Fancy having come all that way!"

He tried to stop his scooter so that he could speak to the Dutch woman and he pulled up with such a jerk that he pitched right over on to his head. Everything seemed to go black and when he opened his eyes again he was back in his own bed and Holland and the Dutch woman had disappeared.

RIDDLE-ME-BEE.

My first is in second but not in first, My next is in cup but not in thirst, In honey my third one may be found, Whilst my fourth is in oval and also in round, My fifth is in ant but not in fly, My sixth is in lemon you'll find if you try, My last is in present, not by and by.

My whole Father Christmas may bring you one day, And then on you—you'll ride far away.

The answer I nearly let out as you see, When you've guessed it just please kindly write and tell me.

ASSOCIATION MEETING.

A meeting of the Hongkong Football Association was held at Victoria Barracks last evening. Mr. R. J. Wilson presided over a large attendance of representatives of the affiliated clubs, and many references.

Mr. F. T. James, hon. secretary, informed the meeting that Mr. C. H. Blake had resigned his position as Division II Secretary.

The Submarine withdrew from the League.

Davis and Carter, "Antros," were reinstated to Division II.

The match played at Weikwei between "Hawkins" and "Despatch" was allowed to stand as a League match, the result being a draw, one all.

A claim for the points by the First Auxiliaries against the University for failing to turn out on November 11, was not approved; the date for the match to be re-arranged by the Secretary, and the University to pay Referees' fees.

The South China Secretary reported that the goal net had been repaired, following the report of the referee in the Club-South China match.

The meeting decided that the closing date for receiving entries for the Hongkong Challenge Shield Competition should be December 31, and a letter of thanks to the H.K.F.C. for handing over the shield was agreed upon.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORT.

The fortnightly report issued by the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce states—

Cotton piece goods and fancy cotton goods.—There is a general enquiry for Woollens and there are buyers of Venetians and Prints. A certain amount of business has been effected but many orders are in abeyance pending a settlement of the Standard form of Contract. Greys and Whites remain moribund.

Cotton Yarn.—The Chinese having satisfied their requirements, the market ruled very quiet and, notwithstanding the depreciation of exchange, our values ruled slightly on the easy side.

Quotations are—No. 10s $153/175, No. 12s $160/178, No. 16s $180/195, No. 20s $173/197. Arrivals 7,500. Shipments nil. Sales 2,000 bales. Unsold stock 7,000 bales. Bargains 10,000 bales.

Woollens.—The woollen market is firm. There has been some small lots of serges, herringbones, etc. sold but on the whole the local market is quiet.

Raw Cottons.—In the absence of stocks, quotations are nominally as follows—Indian descriptions at $30.35. Chinese grades at $32.38.

Metals.—Business has again been quiet. Clearances to the consuming districts have been restricted, the unrest in Kwong Si being mainly responsible. Small lots of Wire Nails have been done at 1-1/2 in. specification at $9.50. Steel Bars are reported to have been done as low as $14.40. Steel Plate Cuttings are required for at $3.50 to $3.60 without finding sellers.

Flour market report. Stock: About 70,000 sacks.

Quotations: American Patent $3.70 per sack; American Straight $2.80 per sack; American Cut off $2.90 per sack; Shanghai Flour $2.90 per sack; Australian No. 1 $3.00 per sack.

Java Sugar.—Market steady. Philippine Sugar.—Market active. Saltpetre.—Heavy drop in Rupee Exchange has considerably strengthened our market.

LOCAL SUGAR MARKET.

The fall in Java exchange has caused the rise in sugar prices to be sustained. At any rate, two of the biggest Chinese importers here, Kiem Tjiang Han and Wing Yee Cheong were buying in the local market quite recently. Their action was interpreted by sugar men as though still higher prices were anticipated and speculators immediately followed suit. Most of the transactions were for sport goods, i.e., clearance within a month and very little forward delivery, i.e., goods to arrive, was closed, this being probably due to the China New Year not being far off. However, clearances have not been above the average, the recent transactions merely entailing a change of ownership without the goods being shipped away. Shipments of the usual grades of Fine Whites and some Philippine Brown have been fairly regular. Prices have moved up accordingly at Canton but the dealers there are meeting with transport difficulties. The most pleasing feature is that some lots of "old crop" have been moved as they were bought months ago at much lower prices. Although most dealers predict higher prices yet, there is not the increased volume of business one would expect and speculators have parted with holdings at from twenty to thirty cents per cial below Nam Pak Hong quotations; the latter does not usually happen when a real boom is on. Yesterday afternoon's Nam Pak Hong quotations were as follows:—

Java No. 24 Rough white $9.83; Java Fine white $10.25 to $10.40; Java No. 13 Rough Brown $8.73; Browns $7.40 to $7.50 per cial.

Very little rice has been landed into godowns from incoming ships to await sale. What has arrived has all been sold for delivery "ex ship". Some of the large junks that carry rice to Canton have been requisitioned and shipments are curtailed according-

Callus? Peel It Off Quickly!

Nothing On Earth Like "Gels-It" For Corns and Calluses.

A spot of thickened skin on the bottom of your foot which so often makes walking an agony, is as easily removed by wonderful "Gels-It" as any hard or soft corn anywhere on your foot. Look at this picture. A few drops of "Gels-It" did the work. The callus came loose from the true heel. No irritation whatever. You feel the callus right off just as a banana splits—perfectly painlessly. "Gels-It" does the same thing to any corn, without the use of sticky plasters, irritating salves, greasy ointments or troublesome tape. There is no trouble—no knife, no scissors to use. "Gels-It" is used by millions because it is common sense, and it never fails. Try it, please!

"Gels-It" is the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover. The only sure way, costs but a trifle of all chemicals and stores. Sold by Dr. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.
